All Americans Take Game One 5-2

Newport, RI- David Gustafson hit a two run home run in the seventh inning to give Lowell a 2-0 lead on their way to a 5-2 victory over the Newport Gulls, in a game that was suspended in the second inning on June 26.

The game was suspended in the second inning with Gulls occupying first and second with one out. The two men were quickly erased when All American pitcher, Rob Nicholas induced a double play off the bat of Mike Kaminski.

Andrew Kittredge pitched well although he did get his first loss of the season. Kittredge was rolling as he went the first four innings without giving up any runs until the home run by Gustafson. After the round tripper, Kittredge got into more trouble as he allowed an RBI single to Paul Malaguti.

Kittredge was later relieved by Geoff Brown as he allowed another run in the following inning.

The Gulls put up two runs in the eighth inning as Greg Garcia and Joey Bergman both collected an RBI. Newport also put two men on in the ninth inning with only one out but could not get any runners to reach home plate.
